[Boston, Mass.] The collection of curiosities which Mr. Perkins gave him has been at Belknap's house ever since the snow came, awaiting conveyance. Has not received any communication from Colonel Payne and so cannot obtain the detailed history that he wished. Encloses one of the subscription papers, and feels sure that his friend will help in the selling of the books. A.L.S. lp. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

[Boston, Mass. ] Thanks him for his enclosure of the vote of thanks given him by the Assembly. Asks his advice as to the proper way of expressing his thanks to that body. Cannot however, view it as "a recompense", considering the great expense to which he has been put in getting the book (History of New Hampshire) ready for publication. Has lately heard of the new school which is started in Peabody's town, and desires to know more of it. A.L.S. 2p. 9 x 7 in.

To John Singleton Copley, at London.

[Boston, Mass. ] Has talked with Mr. Joy and can see no possibility of obtaining a higher price for the land than fifteen hundred dollars. States Mr. Joy's feeling in regard to the loss of the deed of property, and his plans for laying the property off into house lots along Bishop Stoke Street and Seward Street. Advises him to sell at the price offered, if he does not wish to wait the few years that must pass before the value of land increases. Wishes to be given full power of attorney in order to transact any business that Copley may desire. A.L.S. 4p. 9 x 7 1/4 in.
